THE BEST
SUNDAY EVER.

Grace

Good & Bad

Jesus lived and taught in such a way as to change the way we think about others, ourselves and God.

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

Luke 15:1-2 NIV

“When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have food to spare and here I am starving to death!’

Luke 15:17 NIV

So he got up and went to his father. “But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with...

Luke 15:20 NIV

So he got up and went to his father. “But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him;

Luke 15:20 NIV

So he got up and went to his father. “But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

Luke 15:20 NIV

“The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ .

Luke 15:21 NIV

Let’s have a feast and celebrate. For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ So they began to celebrate.

Luke 15:23, 24 NIV

God doesn’t get angry at lost things.

Guilt doesn’t disqualify you from grace. It is the prerequisite for grace.

Who you are is more important to God than what you've done.

God hates sin because of what it does to those He loves.

There's nothing you can do to make God love you more, and there is nothing you can do to make God love you less.

The invitation to grace isn’t to behave but to believe.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16 NIV

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

John 3:17 NIV

Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—

John 1:12 NIV
